The Riverrock is a soft, comfortable henley that's perfect as an everyday piece. With a vintage look that includes contrast stitching and contrast inner neck tape, the men's version has a three-button placket with dyed-to-match Roots73 buttons, while the women's version has a five-button placket and a tapered waist for a flattering fit. Both feature Roots branding with a vertical label on the left hip and silver reflective logo at the back right shoulder.
